

THE MYSTIC SHRINERS.

SOMETHING ABOUT THEIR TRIP TO
CHARLOTTE, N. C.Oasis Temple Organized by the Rich-monders—Colonel Boykin's New Hat and What Became of It.

When the north-bound train over the Atlantic Coast Line rolled into the Byrd-street station Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock the jolly members of Oasis Temple, Mystic Shrine, who left this city last Friday night to organize Oasis Temple in Charlotte, N. C., were greeted by several members of the organization who felt like kicking themselves vigorously for having missed so delightful a trip.

The party left Richmond on the mid-night train Friday. They travelled over the Newboard Air Line, in a Pullman car attached to the well-known "Atlanta Special." Colonel H. M. Boykin, the popular and wide-awake Richmond representative of the Seaboard Air Line, who is also a typical Shriner, planned the trip, and did everything within the bounds of reason for the comfort and pleasure of the party. The others who left Richmond for Charlotte were Messrs. C. A. Taylor, traffic manager of the R. F. and P. railroad; E. D. Hotchkiss, general freight agent of the C. and O.; C. C. Walker, assistant superintendent of the R. F. and P. railroad; Geo. L. Street, L. P. Ecker, John R. Carleton, Thomas Walcott, George J. Freely, H. R. Allen, R. A. Schmitt, R. Horton, F. H. Walton, members of Oasis Temple in this city; W. J. Iskyin, of Wilson N. C.; W. H. H. Corry and Elias E. Gay, of Norfolk, Va.; Mr. Miller, of Louisville, Va., members of Oasis Temple, joined the party en route. Mr. George B. Carter, of the Louisville Courier-Journal, and Mr. R. G. Hilden, of the Richmond Times, were the guests of the party.

A MERRY PARTY.
A merrier party never got together. Everybody had a fresh joke to tell, except those who had totally original jokes to execute. Messrs. Street and Hotchkiss proved themselves as entertaining as any as ever attended a pleasure trip, as did also Messrs. Walker, who frequently inquired after the health of the people en route in a unique style of his own; Ecker and others, who were appointed a committee to see to it that no member of the party should waste any time by slumbering until the delectable Richmond Sunday evening. The party was kept busy and happy, and the trip a pleasant one. At Monroe, N. C., an appetizing breakfast awaited the party, and when the train pulled into Charlotte plans for the day were soon perfected.

ONE OF THE COLORED.
One of the most amusing features of the trip was a joke on Colonel Boykin. He had purchased an elegant silk hat, by way of ornament. Now then he used his silk handkerchief, cautiously on the headgear. A conspiracy was formed to break up that "policy." When the banquet was drawing to a close, Mr. Walker, who had been appointed to accomplish the work, removed the hat from its smooth, polished resting-place, and said:
"Gentlemen, cast your eyes upon this hat."

Colonel Boykin thought he was in jest, but he wasn't. All eyes were turned toward the shining headgear. One sudden swing of the arm sent the bell-shaped ornament to the opposite end of the room, amid cheers from all sides. Then Mr. Ecker placed his two hundred pounds of avoirdupois upon the block. It was a totally different hat, and it did not look a bit ornamental. Colonel Boykin looked on in silent reverie. Then a united laugh proved too much for him. He joined heartily in the joke. Some one furnished him with a travelling cap to wear on route to Richmond. He did not know that he was to be presented with a handsome new silk hat, of the latest block yesterday morning. This was a part of the original plan. The real headgear, the other hat were placed in the Shriner's hall, as a souvenir of the trip.

ROYALTY TREATED.
At Charlotte the Shriners were royally received. They were entertained Saturday morning at the Seaboard Hotel. The Seaboard Hotel, and the Seaboard Hotel, are driven about the city for a couple of hours. The handsome residences, public buildings, and broad streets of the pretty little city attracted favorable comment from the guests. A splendid dinner was served at the Central Hotel, and at 6:30 o'clock Oasis Temple met in their new hall.

The Shrine degrees were conferred upon the following Knights Templar: David Gray Maxwell, Thomas Ross Robertson, Samuel H. Hilton, Eddy S. Rogers, R. W. Smith, Thomas S. Franklin, W. N. Fraher, Ernest A. Young, Robert S. Rinehart, J. P. Misenheimer, Robert Ernest McDonald, Jeff. Davis Helms, Henry Graton Springs, William Watson, Walter S. Cressy, W. H. Fitzgerald, J. B. Carpenter.

After the degrees were conferred the Shriners repaired to the Masonic Temple, where an elegant banquet was served during which a number of speeches were made.

The party left Charlotte Sunday morning, reaching Richmond at 6:30 o'clock. The general feeling was that the Carolina Shrine knew how to entertain Virginia, and that the entire trip was one of the most pleasant the Shriners have yet made. A vote of thanks was tendered to the Seaboard Air Line, for the excellent manner in which he planned and arranged matters on that popular line.

MORGANFIELD'S CHANCES.
Commonwealth's Attorney White Well Pleaded With His Treatment.
Governor O'Ferrall yesterday received a letter from Commonwealth's Attorney White, of Stafford county, announcing the safe arrival of Morganfield, the train robber, at Fredericksburg, Va. White is well pleased with the treatment received in Cincinnati from the authorities. His letter contains the following:

Fredericksburg, Va., Jan. 20, 1895.
Hon. Charles T. O'Ferrall, Richmond, Va.
Dear Sir:—Morganfield is here, and will be tried, unless something unforeseen prevents, February 20th. We had a hard time in Cincinnati, and I take pleasure in saying that we received great and valuable aid from Messrs. Robertson, and W. W. Ramsey, attorneys for Adams Express Company, from the agents of that company and from Colonel Deltsch, chief of police, and Mr. Hermann Witte, head of the detective force.

As the representative of the State of Virginia, I received many courtesies from the judges and other officials of Cincinnati, and I think I may say that in this long and trying journey, our good old State sustained fully her reputation, which is so illustrious.

I think that the general public will be greatly indebted to you for your untiring energy and activity in this whole matter, and unless there be some miscarriage of justice by the failure of a jury to do their duty, you will put a stop to train robberies in this State forever.

Yours truly,
W. SEYMOUR WHITE.

DOG CATCHERS AT WORK

With Their Nets and Their Cage They Have Caught a Dangerous Contagion.

The dog-catchers were out on the war-path, and as a result many poor canines who yesterday enjoyed existence in all of its fullness, are now behind prison bars, penitents of their former selves.

It was a sight tinged with humor, and at the same time with a shade of sadness, because of poor doggie's fate. There was a large wagon, with a body like a cage. In this the victims were put after they were caught. Two mounted policemen accompanied the dog-catchers, in order to cool the wrath of the dogs' owners and teach them that the luxury of a mounted car means a license. Then there were the catchers with their nets, shaped very much like lacrosse rackets, and fast, but not least, the crowd of lookers-on. I saw them at the corner of Sixth and Clay streets and watched them for some time while they captured several dogs. The first victim was a large black canine. He was easy fruit, and walked right into one of the nets. Next a small black terrier shared a similar fate. Presently a medium-sized white dog, with long hair, was seen coming down the street, several blocks off, and the crowd waited to see the fun. When within about a square of the corner the dog halted. He evidently did not like the appearance of things, or else he had sensed the danger. The catcher was ambushed just out of sight behind the corner. Very cautiously the dog came along, with his weather eye open. Just as he reached the corner the man made a lunge and threw his net forward. He had expected the dog to run from him, but he was mistaken, for the canine was an old hand, and knew his business. When the man threw his net forward the dog made one bound toward him, and in the twinkling of an eye he had shot between his adversary's legs, and before the catcher could recover himself the four-legged beast was a mile away. Judging from the applause, the sympathies of the crowd were with the dog.

The dogs that were caught yesterday will remain at the crematory until 12 M. to-day.

Despite the threatening weather, there was a large attendance at the meeting of Pickett Camp last night. A communication from the headquarters of the United Confederate Veterans, in regard to forming a plan for assisting sick and disabled veterans, was read, and an executive committee to report to the next meeting.

An order was also received from Gen. S. D. Lee, commanding the plan of Mr. R. H. Boone, and the adjutant was instructed to reply.

Several cases of need were referred to the Ladies' Auxiliary, and some new members were received into the camp. A resolution of sympathy in the death of Mrs. Conner was passed by the camp.

Next Friday being General Pickett's birthday, a wreath will be placed on his monument.

Addresses were made by Captain Laughton, of Lee Camp, and others.

After the transaction of some routine business the camp adjourned.

Supreme Court of Appeals.
Petition of C. C. v. Daugherty and others. Appeal and supersedeas awarded to a decree of the Circuit Court of Nansemond county.

Turnbull and others vs. Mann. With of error and supersedeas, a judgment or order of the Hustings Court of Petersburg.

Hollan vs. Meisel. Argued by J. S. Parikh and John Howard, Esq., for plaintiff in error, and by Judge Edmund Waddill and E. T. Crump, Esq., for defendant in error, and continued until to-morrow.

Today, after conclusion of the case at bar, the cause liable to be called are: Robinson vs. Commercial and Farmers' Bank of Baltimore, No. 18 on the petition of error; and Bell & Co. vs. Potomac Railroad Company, No. 19 on same docket.

The New Carriage Law.
The new letter carrier regulations went into effect yesterday. Postmaster Cullinworth was at the office at 6:30 A. M., to see how the new regulations would work. Among his staffs are light, and the distribution was made without delay.

Today's work will be a test of whether the distribution can be made promptly without the assistance of the carriers, who have heretofore done the work.

Men from the mailing division will come to the help of the clerks at three hours in the day when the incoming mails are the heaviest.

Both the County and Circuit courts of Henrico were in session yesterday. In the former only routine business was transacted in error, and by Judge Edmund Waddill and E. T. Crump, Esq., for defendant in error, and continued until to-morrow.

Two Fires Burned.
While fighting the fire which occurred Sunday morning at 4 o'clock, the corner of Thirteenth and Leigh streets, Messrs. Adam Schmidt, of Engine Company No. 1, and Horace Clark, of Truck Company No. 2, were severely burned. Mr. Schmidt was sent home and is released from duty for the present, and Mr. Clark was sent home in Chief Fuller's buggy.

The German-American.
At a meeting of the board of directors of the German-American Banking and Building Company, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Alex. R. Holzer, president; James B. Elam, vice-president; Charles K. Willis, secretary and treasurer; F. Stierling, Jackson Brainerd, John Robert, Jr., trustees; W. C. Preston, attorney.

Colonel Inner Qualified.
Colonel William E. Tanager qualified yesterday as member of the Board of Aldermen, from Monroe ward, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. James T. Tanager. The colonel filed his papers with City Clerk B. T. August. Colonel Tanager was a member of the original Board of Aldermen, from Monmouth ward, and this is the third time that he is a member of that body.

Hustings Court.
In the Hustings Court before Judge Witt, yesterday, the case against E. A. Randolph was called, but the latter not being present, a capias was issued, and the case postponed until 10 A. M. instead of 10 A. M., having made a mistake in the hour.

Marriage Licenses.
The clerk of the Hustings Court yesterday issued a marriage license to Aaron Greenwald and Miss Tillie Whitlock.

30 EXHIBIT ITS USEFULNESS.
Boys' Department to Be Organized by the Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

The meeting of the Episcopal Clerics yesterday morning was largely attended and a great many questions of importance arose for discussion. Rev. Dr. J. K. Mason filled the chair during the part of the session, and the latter part was presided over by Rev. Dr. Pike Powers, president of the organization.

Rev. Dr. J. Gravatt, of the Church of the Holy Trinity, presented a report as to the union meeting of the ministers held during the latter part of last year. A committee was appointed to make the arrangements, and a letter was sent by this body to Mr. Sturges, of Ruston, the president of the National Boys' Department, to deliver an address, furnishing the necessary information as to the organization in this city. Mr. Woodward explained that his committee was present to secure the advice of the ministers in the matter. He merely made suggestions, leaving the organization of the boys' department entirely to the pastors and chapters of the respective churches. Denominations of this kind, he said, had

No matter what kind you may want, we have plenty to select from, and all the most select goods.

Colored Dress Goods.

Paris and Berlin says "Crepons" and the trade all over the country cry for them. These fabrics were to be boys of twelve, years of age and upwards, and who would wear the button of St. Andrew's object was to pick the boys to go some way for the church, such as looking after the regular attendance of others upon the Sunday schools. Dr. Wheat spoke of the good work done by the boys of our church. The department consisted of eight members, and its attendance was better than that of the other chapter. There were no assessments to be made, and the only thing required was to procure a charter.

Rev. Mr. Gravatt stated that a similar organization, with ten members, had been established at this church last Sunday.

Rev. George C. Abbott said that he had a boys' society at St. Mark's church. Rev. H. A. Goodwin made the statement that for a year or more he had been trying to secure a man to take charge of the boys in his congregation. Rev. L. H. Mason also spoke in favor of the general introduction of the department, and thought that the organizing of them did a great deal to increase the Clerics' express to the committee its thanks for the information given and the effort of holding a department meeting in the interest of boys. This motion was carried.

Rev. Dr. J. K. Mason stated that at a meeting of the executive committee of the Missionary Society, a resolution had been adopted inviting the local council to send a representative to its quarterly meetings to report in regard to the work done by the Brotherhood.

Upon the motion of Rev. Dr. Carmichael, it was decided to appoint a committee, who are to inform Bishop White of the Clerics' work, and to have him, who is its ex-officio member, be present at the meetings.

At the suggestion of Rev. Mr. Stickney, the committee was also requested to invite the Bishop to meet with the Clerics preparatory to the Lenten services.

The Chair appointed as members of that committee Revs. Carmichael, J. K. Mason, Stickney and Nugent.

The Seaboard Extension.
Colonel H. M. Boykin is inclined to the belief that the rumored extension of the Seaboard Air Line westward from Annapolis is true.

President Hoffman and Vice-President St. John have just completed their tour of inspection, and will now probably give this matter their attention. The plan is to purchase the East and West road, which is 17 miles length, and extend from Cartersville, Ga., to Birmingham, Ala., then to build from Athens to Cartersville a distance of about seventy miles. This would give the Seaboard an easy and short route to Birmingham, and from that point it can reach both Memphis and New Orleans, where it will find abundant connections to the West and Southwest.

Crane is Coming.
William H. Crane, the well-known comedian, will appear at the Academy of Music Tuesday and Wednesday, with Matinee on Wednesday, January 23rd and 24th, presenting two of his best comedies, "Brother John" and "The Senator."

"Brother John," with the original New York cast, scenery and effects, will be given on Tuesday night, and at the Wednesday matinee, and "The Senator," which attracted such large crowds when here last, will be the bill for Wednesday evening. Mr. Crane has surrounded himself with the best company he has ever had. The sale of seats will open next Tuesday morning.

Gessagverion Virginia.
Sanger Hall was crowded last night at the musical and dramatic entertainment given by Gessagverion Virginia. Mr. Maurice Morrison, of Vienna was the particular star of the evening, and rendered several selections with fine effect, which drew forth great applause.

Mr. Morrison is a member of the Six-Metiment Opera Company, which is considered one of the finest in the world, and have played in all of the big cities of Europe.

Sousa is Here.
Sousa is here. His famous band will be heard in two grand concerts—matinee and evening at 8—in the Academy of Music. It is needless to expatiate on the merits of this great musical organization; its fame is well-known, and Sousa himself would prove attraction sufficient to draw a large audience. The Academy will be packed at both concerts. The advance sale is unusually large.

A marriage license was issued in Washington Saturday to Frank Mosby and Mary Louise Blackburn, both of Richmond, Va.
